HAY FEVER

Florida is known by an eternal spring and that is the reason why hay fever is such a big problem here. Hay fever, also known as allergic rhinitis, is an allergic response to pollen (the male component of the plant reproductive system), mold (a type of fungus that is usually found in the outdoor environment and in damp, dark indoor areas like the basement or bathroom), or other microscopic substances. Hay fever can be either seasonal or perennial (year-round). Seasonal hay fever occurs when particular plants or trees produce pollen, which is released into the air to fertilize the eggs of that plant or tree.

In the spring, pollinating trees are responsible for causing hay fever. Over the summer, grasses and weeds produce the pollen. And in the fall, ragweed is usually the culprit. Hay fever can also be caused by fungus releasing its reproductive cells, called spores, from late March until November.

Year-round hay fever is caused by agents that are present throughout the year, such as dust mites, mold, animal dander, and feathers. These irritants can be found in pillows, down clothing, draperies, upholstery, thick carpeting, and bedding.

It is common for people to be allergic to more than one pollen or agent.

Your body's immune system interprets the allergen (pollen, mold, dander, etc.) as an "invader" and responds by releasing a chemical called histamine into the bloodstream.

Histamine causes inflammation (swelling and redness) of the sinuses, nose, and mucus membranes of the eyes and triggers sneezing. The swelling reaction is designed to block the allergen from entering the body and sneezing is a method to expel it out of the body. Histamine also allows fluids to enter the nasal tissue, resulting in congestion, itching, and a runny nose.

People with hay fever have sudden sneezing, a watery nasal discharge, puffy eyes, and fatigue. Symptoms can occur at all stages of life, but most people develop hay fever before reaching 30 years of age. Hay fever affects 10% to 20% of the U.S. population and is the most common allergy in the country. It is unknown why some people get allergies while others do not. However, there is some evidence to suggest that hay fever is hereditary (passed on from parents to children). People who suffer from asthma or eczema are also more likely to develop hay fever.

The most effective treatment is simply to avoid the allergen. Air conditioner filters remove 99% of airborne pollen. Facemasks, similar to those worn by surgeons, can significantly reduce the amount of allergen you inhale while outdoors.

If you have eye allergies, try wearing wraparound or goggle-type sunglasses to protect your eyes from pollens. If you are exposed to pollen, wash your eyes and your eyeglasses frequently with soap and water. Use cool compresses to relieve eye symptoms. Ask your doctor about over-the-counter and prescription drugs that can provide relief.

Effective drug therapies for hay fever include antihistamines that block the chemical that causes symptoms, cromolyn which prevents the mast cells (a type of blood cell) from releasing histamine, and topical nasal steroids that decrease swelling and inflammation.

There are as you can see several methods for treatment and there is no need for you to suffer the entire season, ask your doctor what is the modality of therapy more adequate to you and have a symptoms free allergy season. ▼

HOROSCOPE

by Jacqueline

Mercury will be going retrograde on the 6th, which means look out! Expect communication breakdowns and delays in your travels. If at all possible don't sign any formal agreements or make any life-altering decisions until after the 30th. The full moon in Libra on the 5th will bring a desire to focus on your love life. It's a good time to access what your desires are and to start aiming for them. The new moon in Aries on the 19th will give you the optimism you need to achieve them.

Aries Happy Solar return! It is time to start your new year. Reassess your routines and habits that are no longer effective and make new ones that fit into your new lifestyle. You will find it easier to change this month. The full moon in Aries on the 19th will also allow you to let go of those old emotions.

Taurus Your creative side is blossoming now. Let it flow. Take some time to relax and look at your own views instead of others. This is a time to find out what makes you happy and focus on it. The beginning of the month may bring a romance into play. Make sure it fits within your true desires.

Gemini This month is a good month for changes in your day-to-day routine. With your planet, mercury going retrograde on the 6th, you will be looking into your health a little more. It is a good time to find the right regimen for your optimum health. Venus enters your sign on the 3rd bringing the people who care about you closer. Take the time to appreciate them.

Cancer The need for a strong, deep, spiritual relationship with your mate or yourself is highlighted this month. Others will challenge your beliefs. Stay firm with what you believe. Focus on your work. Your extra efforts will be noticed and can boost your career.

Leo Efficiency with time is the focus for you this month. Don't let others take up your time with needless activities. You have many productive things to do. Especially with investments or long-term goals. You have the luck to be able to enhance your bank account by looking at and going for those goals.

Libra What people think of you seems to be very important to you at the moment. Just remember that others perceptions are not always valid; so don't try to conform to the expectations of others. Be careful to take the time to compare prices on any purchases this month. If you take the time you will find it at a better price.

Scorpio Information from all sides will be coming to you. This will make you indecisive. It is not a time for action, but examination. Many of your life-goals need to be reworked, or at least some rethinking. Your work routine will be your stability and escape.

Sagittarius Don't let the daily grind get to you. This is a boring month. All work and no play will make you an unhappy camper. Look into making plans for a trip in the future. Talk to your friends about where they have gone. This will help. Your dreamtime is very important. Make sure you pay attention to what it is telling you.

Capricorn The personal decisions that you have been pondering should be put to the side this month. A lot of new information, which you are unaware of, will be coming your way. You will be able to make better and more informed decisions. Find some time to escape your thoughts and play. You have the time; take it while you can.

Aquarius You are looking through rose-colored glasses. Things are not as they appear. Learn to ask more questions and get more information. You are looking ahead too far. Take some time to look at the beauty of what is in your environment now. You will find your pleasure there. Your finances will fluctuate; don't worry all will balance out next month.

Pisces Feeling like you're on a roller coaster ride? Well, hang on; the ride is not over yet. This is a time for you to go with the flow. The plans you have made in the past are reappearing for you to fine-tune. Allow them to take whatever form they would like. The time to act upon them will come. Focus on your finances and make sure they are in order. ▼

For those who want to know Aries is the beginning of the zodiac calendar. It brings us a time of rebirth. Mars rules Aries and the key phrase is "I am." Mars is action. What this means is that it's a good time for all of us to start fresh and look to the future to dictate our actions of today.

OK girls, you noticed the 1 on the cover, so what do Kelli and Janet, and Peter have in common? In other words, what do Club Błrd Cage and Electus Antiques have in common? Oh, and while you're checking your back issues for the answer, figure out what mistake ran in the first twelve issues and no one noticed!

What they have in common is that they have advertised in every single issue of Out on the Coast magazine. Club Błrd Cage has had a full-page ad and Electus Antiques has had a Business Place ad, plus the distinction of being our very first signed advertiser. Please join me in thanking them for their unflinching support. It is they and our other advertisers that make it possible us to bring you this magazine each month. Looking towards next year, things look promising for expansion and hopefully a professional salesperson out there gets involved as we're stretched a little thin right now.

Lately I've been busy with the parents (nothing like two 80-something roommates for six months), so I'm a little out of the loop on the goings on up north. I did happen to make it into Fairvilla in Cape Canaveral a couple of times (I was selling, not buying... well except for that – never mind). They are our newest distributor and hopefully soon one of our advertisers. If you've never been there, it's quite amazing to walk into a 15,000 square foot adult store! Oh, and if you map them on line to see how to get there, use 500 Tower Blvd., not Thurm Blvd. as the mapping engines don't have the newer street name.

Quite amazing parties have been going on at the Cold Keg. Mardi Gras was very festive with painted boys in tight shorts (thanks, Jeffery) and beads and dancing and just another fabulous Cold Keg theme party. We're all looking forward to Resurrection on the 10th. Of course the rest of the week at the Cold Keg is just plain fun: from happy hour through closing there's always people to meet and do – I mean things, things to do.

Chris with Lefty Mayer

As for doing, we're doing this writing contest for Pride Month. You may have noticed the ad on the inside front cover. Anyway, so far the entries have been.... well, judge for yourself, I'll quote the first line from each entry so far: “

“ So sublime, don't cha think? I keep hearing people talk about entering, too.

On a sad note in Melbourne, Lefty Mayer, passed on Friday morning, March 19th. Lefty was a true friend who was well respected by all who knew him. He was a generous supporter of many charity events throughout the years and loved by all. Services will be held for Lefty on Saturday, March 27th at 10:00am at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, 3780 A1A, Melbourne Beach, Florida (6 miles south of 192).

Many are sad at the lack of entertainment in Cocoa. I keep hearing rumors about maybe, perhaps, might be something starting up there again. We can only hope. However, it's more than a rumor that Thump will return to Melbourne. May should flower forth with new-old places and things to do.

Down in Vero, Bliss is looking for new things: go-go dancers, to be specific. Elton has tried, and Lord knows I've been working the boys, but so far no takers on the offer (or is that taker-offers). We can only look forward to some eye candy for the building Sunday night crowd at Bliss 'cause I know Elton is intent on this happening. I know I'm checking out boys at every opportunity for him – oh, the lengths I go to for my advertisers! If you haven't checked out Bliss lately, you should.

PFLAG Vero Beach is looking forward to quite a crowd at their Spring Fling at Visa Meadows Country Club, on Saturday, March 27th – not the 29th as reported here last month (March, April, May, they're all months, why do they have to keep switching the numbers around in them)! Then the ones who didn't over do it will head on down to PrideFest. Something PFLAG VB does every few months is help keep Vero looking good by cleaning a section of Rt. 60. My bonnet's off to those wonderful people who meet at 8am on a Sunday morning to pick up roadside trash. It speaks volumes about dedication and pride. Pride in their community and their organization and themselves. And they get to wear those oh-so-butcher orange vests, too! Don't forget to get your tickets for the fifth annual PFLAG Vero Beach Pride Dinner Dance, June

Family of God in Christ Community Church continues to serve all Christians in Central Brevard County. Services are offered on Sundays at 10:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. and on Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. For more information and directions to their church you may call 321-632-2767 or their website: www.familyofgodbrevard.org

This week in preparing to preach the weekend services, I came upon the story of the Prodigal Son. Many of you recall the story from the Bible; a son wanted his inheritance early from his father and off he went living a life of leisure and recklessness spending his whole inheritance. Once the funds and the good times were over he realized his error and missed his former way of life and yearned to return to his father. He returned to much joy and celebration as his Father celebrated his return with compassion, welcome and love. In many ways we as individuals feel this there is a better way of life than our own. We yearn for the good 'ole' days of quick satisfactions and life in the fast lane. Some leave their relationships and where they are at to go back to the reality of times past and realize the emptiness and the coldness that exists. They loose everything they once had with themselves and others for what they think is a better place only to come up empty handed.

God is ready for us to return to him when we are ready. God is always waiting and yearning for our return to Him and a life of peace and love. He was born in that humble manger and died on that cross we will soon celebrate, to offer to all of us a life of goodness and joy and peace here and the afterlife. It is up to ourselves to forgive our mistakes and return to the life that God has created us to live. Many come up with every excuse in the book because it is sometimes easier to forgive others rather than forgive ourselves.

God calls us to be his presence of peace and forgiveness to others. When we get these feelings of uselessness and restlessness, when we yearn for what "used to be" we must remember where we have come as individuals. We cannot go back to the yesterdays because the yesterdays are no longer there. Today and the future is what is important and we must realized that we are loved, a fact we should never take for granted.

Yes the prodigal Son did return, he realized the true love he once celebrated with his Father. Now is the time for you to realize the love our heavenly creator has for each and every one of you. Come back to the welcome, God is waiting for each and every one of you with open arms. Are you willing to return? God Bless your Journey, ▼

12th at the Italian American Club. It'll be a sit down dinner this year, so no sales at the door. The price will be $30 and it's guaranteed to be a great time. Get tickets by calling 772-778-9835 or turning up at a PFLAG meeting (see the map on page 13 and their ad on page 11 for dates, times and places).

Club B!rld Cage will be representing PSL at Pride Fest in Lake Worth on Sunday, the 28th with a float and performances in the Fest itself. That'll be a great time, guaranteed. And according to my source at Compass GLCC, all four-letter words beginning with "r" have been banned until March 29. So come on down and enjoy the parade and PrideFest. Incidentally, for those close to Fort Worth, the fest is a two-day event this year, starting on Saturday, although Sunday with the parade will be the biggest day. Speaking of a big day, the Club B!rld Cage's April customer appreciation day, Sunday, April 25th, will be another family day with, get this, a kid's talent contest with a $100 first prize! What a great way to reward kids' talents and what a great way to reward their parents, too. And don't forget May 7th is the Miss $1.69 pageant a Club B!rld Cage tradition.

Friday night Club B!rld Cage card reader tradition and our very own horoscope author, Jacqueline, is now on the radio! Check out WPSL, AM 1590, from 6-7pm, the Dinner and Dining Show. She's off on vacation to the West Coast visiting family so don't look for her at the bar but she will be on the show for the foreseeable future!

VIP's is starting a future tradition with their 1st Annual Family Pride Picnic on Sunday, March 28th at Rotary Park in PSL. VIP's is taking a pass on the Palm County Pride festivities in favor of creating a St. Lucie Pride event, although Danielle Starr will be there performing. So if you're skipping the parade and PrideFest in Lake Worth, boogie on over to Rotary Park, 2101 SE Tiffany Ave., east of US 1 between 2 and 6 for a pot luck picnic (bring your own meat and a dish to share – no alcohol in the park). At VIP's the new dancers on Fridays and the rotation line up for Saturday nights is creating ever-changing entertainment for your enjoyment and attracting a growing crowd. Oh, and Tori Holden has a new job in Orlando and she'll be moving there soon, but she will be in PSL for her nights at VIP's so we aren't losing her completely.

Vote '04 A Change tidbit: With the race for the presidency now underway it is a good time to stop and think about what is important to you and try and ascertain where each candidate stands on those issues. To some, equal rights, represented by the gay marriage issue in this campaign, is paramount; to others getting the economy going is the hot issue; yet others see social programs as the most important; and then there are those who consider changing the world order to obliterate terrorism the penultimate issue. Wherever you fall within this spectrum (or without it, as there are many other "ultimate" causes) I can promise you that each candidate will vow to you that his opponent's position is wrong. Each candidate's assertions will be as well crafted as focus groups and media experts and money can devise. Your task is to listen, evaluate and think. Yes, think. For yourself. Modern campaigns are designed to be emotional affairs, to cloud thinking with self-righteousness and fear. Don't fall for it. Find out for yourself where a candidate stands, check facts yourself. Then go out and cast your vote where YOU know it belongs! ▼

(House) H.J. Res. 93: Article to amend the Constitution of the United States --

'SECTION 1. Marriage in the United States shall consist only of the union of a man and a woman. Neither this Constitution or the constitution of any State, nor state or federal law, shall be construed to require that marital status or the legal incidents thereof be conferred upon unmarried couples or groups.' (emphasis added)

Co-sponsors: 22, with only one from Florida: Dave Weldon, R-FL, 15th District. Weldon is up for re-election in November. The 15th District covers all of Brevard and Indian River Counties.
