What are headaches?

Nearly everyone is familiar with the occasional tension headache, the aching or pounding sensation that can affect most or a part of the head. But there are many different kinds of headaches. For people with a condition called cluster headaches, the pain can become excruciating and recurs in regular cycles, or "clusters."

The brain itself is insensitive to pain, so that is not what hurts when a headache arises. Rather, headache pain is sensed in the following locations:

- The tissues covering the brain.
- The attaching structures at the base of the brain.
- Muscles and blood vessels around the scalp, face, and neck.

It should be noted, however, that the sources for this pain are in the brain itself or are unknown.

Physicians categorize headaches as either primary or secondary, according to their underlying causes.

Cluster headache is a form of primary headache. Treatment varies according to the headache type.

Primary Headaches. A headache is considered primary when a disease or other medical condition does not cause it. Most primary headaches fall into three main types: tension-type, migraine, and cluster headaches.

- Tension headache is the most common primary headache and accounts for 90% of all headaches.

- Neurovascular headaches are the second most frequently occurring primary headaches and include migraines (the more common) and cluster headaches. Such headaches are caused by an interaction between blood vessel and nerve abnormalities.

Headaches are usually caused by either muscle tension, vascular problems, or both. Migraines are vascular in origin, and may be preceded by visual disturbances, loss of peripheral vision, and fatigue. Most headaches can be relieved or ameliorated by over-the-counter pain medications.

It should be noted that symptoms of migraine and tension-type headaches often overlap and a diagnosis is sometimes difficult.

Secondary Headaches. Secondary headaches are caused by other medical conditions, such as sinus infections, neck injuries, and strokes. About 2% of headaches are secondary to abnormalities or infections in the nasal or sinus passages, and they are commonly referred to as sinus headaches.

Chronic Daily Headaches. The International Headache Society has developed a classification system that includes a category called chronic daily headaches. Chronic daily headaches affect 4% to 5% of the population. They may originate as tension headaches, migraines, or a combination of these or other headache types. Chronic daily headaches are defined as any benign headache that occurs at least 15 days a month and is not associated with a serious neurologic abnormality. Most people with these headaches have them daily or almost daily and they can be quite debilitating.

Chronic daily headaches are, in turn, subdivided into two categories:

- Short-duration headaches, or those lasting less than four hours. The most common type of short-acting chronic headaches is cluster headaches.
- Headaches, which last more than four hours. Tension-type headaches are the most common type of long-duration chronic (recurring) headaches and, in fact, the most common type of chronic headaches in general. ▼

HOROSCOPE

by Jacqueline

Now aren't you glad mercury is finally direct again! This month brings all moving forward. The lunar eclipse and full moon on the 4th in Scorpio brings our next step of transformation. It allows you to move through all the crisis that arose last month and frees your emotions so that you can move forward. Jupiter goes direct on the same day so your benefits will be double. The New moon in Taurus on the 19th will make you look into the beauty of life and your own personal values and beliefs. Make the right choice and follow what you believe no matter how hard it may be. You will find your benefits there.

Aries The key phrase for you this month is "don't sweat the small stuff." The personal letters and business that you have been avoiding need to be taken care of now or next month they will haunt you. Your faith and spiritual beliefs will be challenged. It's a good time to make changes in your life to follow closer to what your soul is telling you. Avoid any power struggles and let go of the trivial things.

Taurus Happy Solar Return! Let your creative juices flow. You will find this is a very productive month. On the 16th when mercury goes into Taurus, others will pay attention to your thoughts and actions. Remember to finish one task before moving on to another or you may find you are spreading yourself too thin.

Gemini This is a good time to be out with groups of people or to do some public speaking rather than individuals. After the 17th when Venus goes retrograde you may find yourself drawn into confrontations about petty matters especially with your mate. Either let them roll off your back or negotiate it out. You have a wonderful ability to find a compromise this month.

Cancer You will find yourself nurturing others more than ever especially with their health. While taking care of your friends and loved ones remember to take some time to have some fun especially after the 7th when Mars enter your sign. At this time your one-to-one relationships will take on more meaning. Cherish those moments; they will be more significant in the future. Remember what you give now you will get back twofold in the future.

Leo Things will unfold nicely regarding job interests this month. There may be some good news about a loan, inheritance or investment. Getting along with touchy or picky people may prove to be difficult, particularly since some just like to quarrel or debate. You have a wonderful ability to change the subject. This would be a good time to use that talent.

Virgo You are finally reaping the benefits of your hard work this month with Jupiter going direct in your sign on the 4th under a full moon. Take some time to let your hair down and relax. Don't keep your guard up waiting for the other shoe to drop. It won't. You have a guardian angel on your shoulder. Let your mind relax. Look at the beauty around you. You will appreciate what you see.

Libra Even though your career has been moving in the right direction the last few months, now would be the time to take a closer look at the path you have chosen.

This month brings opportunities that can propel you in life. While focusing on your career, don't forget about your obligations at home, or they will pile up.

Scorpio The saying "keep your friends close, and your enemies closer" applies this month. Make sure you know which is which. It's not a time to get rid of those who are not serving you, but a time to examine who your friends are. Next month you will be able to release those who are not productive in your life without conflict. Peace and harmony are important the keywords for you now.

Sagittarius Now is the time to assess your personal finances. Watch where your money is going, or before you know it, it will disappear. Spend you time planning for the future. You will have some transformational spiritual experiences over the next few weeks that will bring new insight. Don't analyze it; experience it.

Capricorn Work habits and routines need closer examination and scrutiny now. You have been thinking of new ways, but haven't put them into place. So, get motivated and excited. Make those changes from your safe routine. It will benefit you tremendously. In fact it might just bring you a new job that you have been wanting for a long time.

Aquarius Unexpected expenses and surprise are in store for you this month. If you aren't aware, it will be hard for you to stay a float. Remember nothing is ever urgent. Analyze the situation and act conservatively. You will at least be half-right. Your creative juices are flowing. Use them to your benefit.

Pisces The key phrase for you this month is "don't sweat the small stuff." The personal letters and business that you have been avoiding need to be taken care of now or next month they will haunt you. Your faith and spiritual beliefs will be challenged. It's a good time to make changes in your life to follow closer to what your soul is telling you. Avoid any power struggles and let go of the trivial things.

For those who want to know: Taurus is the second sign of the zodiac. It shows us the beauty of life and rules our 5 senses. It is ruled by the earth and Venus. What this means is it's a good time to look within our environment and find the beauty in all situations. Taurus is the bull so be stubborn in what is correct in your life and it will work. ▼

Vote '04 A Change tidbit: For people who live in the 16th Congressional District it's imperative to get Jeff Fisher on the ballot. He needs to finish raising the $9,200 by May 4th. Go to JeffFisherForCongress.com to donate on line. It's important that Mark Foley not be allowed win by default. The 16th Congressional District includes Okeechobee County, North and East St. Lucie County (including Port St. Lucie) and Martin County in our coverage area. I met Jeff at the Blvd Cage a couple of weeks ago; he understands our issues and is on our side. This is the first time in my life that I've met a candidate for Congress in a Gay Bar. Please help him now with whatever you can afford and vote for him in November. For those of you living in Indian River and Brevard Counties, Simon Pristoop (candidate in the 15th running against Weldon) needs to replenish his campaign coffers, too, after paying his $9,200. Send your contributions to Simon for Congress, PO Box 372239, Satellite Beach, FL 32937.

Fire the proofreader, dept. Our cover model last month was, of course, Carson – not Casron and the helpful bunny was Harry not Hank!

We are so glad that up in Cocoa, Mark Osdras' surgery went well and, although not quite back to 100%, Mark is on the mend and we're all relieved that there are no complications. Mark's church, Family of God in Christ, has a couple of special events upcoming – aside from their regular Sunday and Wednesday services – Pearl Crosby Smith will be at the church May 12 for a seminar on the legal right and issues of couple and gay estate planning; on June 4th Brevard County Health Dept. will be offering free, confidential, HIV/Hepatitis testing with the new 20 minute HIV test. For more information call 321-632-3767 or visit www.FamilyOfGodBrevard.org.

The Resurrection Party at the Cold Keg was another great time. Lots of people and two male strippers as well as a female stripper! There are a lot of new faces showing up for Trash Thursdays, so it bodes well for the Cold Keg's next theme party Memorial Day weekend.

DJ Jus10 wants to know: what music do you want to hear? Jus10 spends a lot of time researching and money on new music and is wondering what you think of it. It seems the requests he gets indicate you want the "classics" or the top 10 over and over again. Do you appreciate the new music he plays? Just let him know what you want to dance to. Talk to him at the Cold Keg or send your comments to DJ\_Jus10@earthlink.net

As for Thump, is now Kobalt. It's a private party on Tuesdays, starting May 4th, from 9pm to 2am. That means you have to have an invitation, or be with someone who has one (the invite holder gets in free, others pay $5). It will be at Club 702, but in the Blue Room, not the big room. Stop by and check out the tunes and show.

There's going to quite a show in Vero at Bliss at Bombay Louie's on May 16th. The theme is Leather and Lace, Mistress Haleigh and her friends will be there with their toys; open bondage play will start at 8 pm and at 10, Mistress Haleigh will give a flogging demonstration. Kinky Bliss gives you a chance explore your leather leanings. This is a different kind of event, for sure!

After the success of their spring fling, PFLAG Vero Beach is gearing up for their big Pride event. Tickets are now on sale for their 5th Annual Pride Dinner Dance. It will be June 12th at the Italian American Club in Vero. Check out their ad (look right) for details. Since Brevard Together is not doing one this year, PFLAG Vero Beach's event is the only Pride month celebration out here on the coast. Get your ticket now, before they're gone.

Spiritually Speaking

Rev. Dr. Jerry Seay

Recently, I was reminded of the story of an oil painting we have hanging in our living room. Several years ago, while serving as pastor of a MCC church in northern Florida, an artist in our congregation donated this painting to a church yard sale. She informed us that she did not like the painting of a country cabin.

Fortunately for us, we did like the painting. We were able to purchase it at the sale for less than $2. We then took the painting to a gallery in Tampa run by two artist friends of ours. They looked at the painting, and put a beautiful frame on it. The frame cost us (at wholesale) about $100.

When we returned home with the framed painting, we showed it to the original artist. She did not recognize her picture. When we reminded her that this was the painting she had discarded because she did not like it, she was shocked. She also decided that she now liked the painting, since it was seen in a new setting. We did not sell it back to her.

I often wonder how often we discard things and people in our lives, thinking they don't have any value to us. We don't like the way they appear to us. It might take the expert eye of a professional to help us see those people or objects in a different light.

I have experienced this many times as I would share my personal dislikes with others. They in turn would sometimes show me a different way of looking at the person or object. When I began to view them from a different perspective or setting, I would see something in them I had not seen before.

Before discarding friends or objects in our lives, let us seek the advice of others who might be viewing the same picture from a different point of view. Maybe they can open our eyes to values we have missed or been blinded to.

Learning to see others from a new perspective is one of the greatest challenges and adventures of life. Learning to see a different side of people than before can be a great learning experience. True spirituality is learning to see the potential and positive in others rather than just the bad or negative. Let us learn to see with the eyes of God. ▼

And while we're talking about new advertisers, as ZaZa might say, "Avon to tell you about the new AVON girls." Yes, Sharon and Lourdes want to be your AVON ladies – check out their ad in the Business Place section.

If you're a singer you should check out Thursdays at Club Blvd Cage where Karaoke with Chris is running a contest culminating on June 24th with a $500 cash prize. So get on over and sing your heart out for some long cash! On Friday's you can see most all of the Boys in the Nest on Fridays and Saturdays.

The long and the short of it at VIP's is fun! Tye-dyeing with Salsa on Tuesdays was a big hit (so if you see someone in tye-dye you know where they've been playing). I wonder what he's up to next? VIP's has added $1 drafts to Klubbin' Karaoke Wednesdays to help lubricate the fun. Carson's may have gone back north but Thursdays will be just as fun – if you don't believe me just check it out! And the new rotation of performers on Saturdays has been a hit that is sure to last.

And last, but certainly not least, are our newest advertisers, Sal Pulsateri of Exit Realty – you can't miss his ad on page 22, nor can you miss out on a good deal with him on your side; and JP Custom Blinds in the Business Place section, for your window needs whether your home is new or not! ▼
